

The Use of Social Media, Cell Phones, Texting, Technology, and Cyberbullying

Tuesday, November 23, 2010 at 7:00 PM
Wakefield Community School

DEFINITION: Cyberbullying, v: the use of technology such as computers and cell phones to engage in repeated and hostile behavior by an individual or group that is intended to harm others.

ABOUT THE PRESENTATION: Since there has been an increase in the number of cases concerning “Cyberbullying,” Karen first created a presentation to educate school administrators, teachers, and coaches. She is now giving this presentation across the State of Nebraska to students.

Her presentation uses humor, statistics, summaries of real-life cyberbullying cases, and criminal consequences attached to the inappropriate use of social media such as Facebook and MySpace.

Karen will be speaking with Wakefield, Emerson-Hubbard, and Allen students in Grades 5 through 12 during the school day.

WHEN IS THE PRESENTATION:

7:00 PM in the Main Gym at Wakefield Community School

NOTE: The material discussed at the evening session may not be suitable for children under 12. Daycare will be provided by the Wakefield FCCLA Chapter.

ABOUT THE PRESENTOR: Karen Haase is a well-known school law attorney from the Harding & Shultz law firm located in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Karen and her husband have two children and are aware of the challenges parents face with the use of technology by children growing up today.

This presentation is made possible and in cooperation with the teachers, staff, administration at Wakefield Community School, Emerson-Hubbard Community Schools, and Allen Consolidated Schools. Special thanks to the Wakefield, Emerson-Hubbard, and Allen school boards.